

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

MRS. JESSE JAMES—The six-foot "legend" "Annie" identified as Mrs. Billie Owen, is shown after she was captured in Craig, Colorado, with three male companions in connection with a crime wave extending over three states. Police said the 27-year-old woman was carrying a gun when she was seized and was "as tough as any man." The quartet are suspected of having committed robberies in New Mexico, Colorado and Wyoming.

JAPS-U.S. ARMY COMPARE SKILLS IN PEACEFUL ARCHERY—Archery contest for Japanese and members of the U.S. army in Japan finds the contestants using each other's weapons. The Japanese here used by Capt. L. Taylor, (left), has the handle set off-center. The Jap at the right is wearing a native costume.

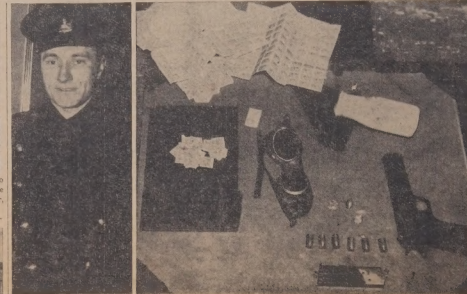

BEFORE-BREAKFAST SPIN ENDS IN DISASTER—Townpeople of Whittier, Calif., in the neighborhood of Conversation Piece stand about the shattered wreckage of the light plane in which Jack Atkins, 23, auto shop mechanic, suffered non-fatal injuries. Jack went out for his usual pre-breakfast spin in the one-seat fabric plane, but "crashed in the crash." He was taken to hospital and nine of his co-workers offered transfusions within an hour of the crash.

JEWISH LEADER—Here is the latest picture of David Ben Gurion, chairman of the Jewish agency, who is slated for a high post in the cabinet of the newly created Jewish state.

EX-CANADIANS ON PALESTINE FARMS IN ARAB ZONE—Jews on collective farm of Kfar Menahem, 10 miles from the Arab zone of Palestine, include 12 from Canada. With possibility U.S. women and children may be advised to leave, workers on this farm in southern Judea do not anticipate trouble. Mr. and Mrs. D. Perlmutter, second and fifth from left, are ex-Torontonians.

CONSTABLE WOUNDED IN GUN BATTLE—Shooting it out with bandits in Kitchener, P.O. Harold Ulmer, (left), caught son. Articles found in possession of man held by police after shooting in Kitchener store include this gun, bullets, wallet, goggles and milk. Five of the six gunmen surprised in store escaped after wounding a policeman. Entering store after manager's plea for help, F.O. Richard Cowan, (right), was greeted by a burst of gunfire and wounded in the thigh.

WOMAN SLAIN HERE?—Police say they believe Mrs. Julie Kahane, 54, was dragged into a lonely spot behind Dundas' Castle museum, brutally attacked and murdered. Her body was found by a citizen walking through the park. Chief of Detectives John Thompson said he was unable to say what caused her death. Dundas' castle, (above), is in Dundas park, in a lonely section of the west end of Hamilton, Ont., opposite Hamilton cemetery.

NEW ROLE FOR REFUGEE SHIP—A view of the port of arrival in Haifa of the British ship "Oman Vigor" with a group of 1,420 babies born in the Jewish refugee detention camps of Cyprus. The Vigor was one of the ships that had the important task of taking "orphan" refugees from Hamburg, Germany. This time it was a ship of happiness. The Palestine government permitted the infants with parents and all orphans under 17 to enter the Holy Land regardless of quota. They came in time to celebrate the birth of an independent Jewish state. British sailors helped the arrivals.

SIXTH CANADIAN CONVICTED ON SPY COUNT—Convicted after a two-week trial of conspiracy to violate the Official Secrets Act, Dr. Raymond Boyer is to be sentenced. Taken to cell, $10,000 bail was cancelled.

ARAB LEADER—ELIEZER BEN-HAIM—A former Palestine Arab rebel leader, is reported to be in command of a "Palestine striking force" to be established in Syria to fight the establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine. The report added that the Syrian cabinet voted two million Syrian pounds (about $1,000,000) to help the Arabs in the Holy Land. Ben-Haim's old former Arab army against the Palestine Jews.

SEATTLE IS SCENE OF LATEST AIR DISASTER—One of the chartered engines and burned tail assembly of a transport plane lost on the concrete highway near the Seattle, Wash., airport after it crashed while attempting to land through a low overcast night. Of the 28 persons aboard the ill-fated craft, 184 perished and six others removed to hospital. The plane, which had arrived over Seattle from Ketchikan, Alaska, hit and crashed as automobile as it plunged down on to the highway shortly after airport.

WOMAN SLAIN HERE?—Police say they believe Mrs. Julie Kahane, 54, was dragged into a lonely spot behind Dundas' Castle museum, brutally attacked and murdered. Her body was found by a citizen walking through the park. Chief of Detectives John Thompson said he was unable to say what caused her death. Dundas' castle, (above), is in Dundas park, in a lonely section of the west end of Hamilton, Ont., opposite Hamilton cemetery.

FOSTER BOY—Terry Tulloh, a 10-year-old boy from Laredo, Tex., has been chosen as U.S. foster child for the 1948 March of Dimes campaign against the dread polio epidemic. At three, Terry (above), is the youngest child ever selected for the March of Dimes poster. Little golden-haired Terry was stricken with polio in 1945 before he had learned to walk. He has since made rapid recovery and, though he still wears braces, is expected to regain full use of his legs.

AND THE FLAME WASN'T HERE—A derelict is pictured clearing away the wreckage of a U.S. navy single-engine torpedo bomber which crashed, at the height of the trials, on the John Philip Jones bridge, spanning the Anacostia river in Washington, D.C. Source of motorists were impertinent when the pilot, Lt. J. T. Billing of Glenview, Ill., gave the order to make an immediate forced landing, because his engine stalled, cause the bridge for a side landing when the plane failed to gain altitude. The plane was badly damaged, but the pilot, whose only injury was a gash on the head, climbed out of the cockpit unaided.

ARABS IN COUNCIL OF WAR—The ex-Grand Mufti of Palestine, Haj Amin al-Husseini, who fled to help Hitler during the war and is now back in Lebanon, is pictured with Arab League leaders during a conference held in Beirut. Discussions centered around the future plans for Palestine, since passage of the U.N. partition plan was almost a certainty at the time. Left to right are: Bishop Haddad of Hama; the ex-Grand Mufti; Ben Bekdash, mayor of Bethlehem; and Emil Ghorey, representative of the Christian Arabs in the Arab high committee. Meanwhile, reports of riots throughout all countries in the Near East have been confirmed and attacks are being made upon both Jewish quarters and U.S.-owned property, as the Arabs demonstrate violently against the U.N. partition plan of Palestine.

MRS. SANTA CLAUS—Strolling out of her toy store, Mrs. Catherine Hawkins, 62, of New York City, helped the New York Children's Foundation in their drive to provide presents for 25,000 rural school children in more than 1,000 isolated areas. Many of these children have never had any thing but homemade toys.

